West Coast Fence

"My name is Javier Hernandez, the owner of West Coast Fence Co. I started installing fences in 1970. I am 5 years old in this photo, when my father, who also was a fencer, purchased his first truck. Throughout the years, my five brothers and I helped him install fences throughout the West Coast. I received my contractor's license and started a branch in San Diego five years ago. I will measure your fence and install it — just as I have done for the last 40 years."
